

Vandalism Brings Stern Warnings

Vandalism and destruction of property at the Grayling Golf Club has brought stern warnings from the membership through their president, Dr. J. F. Cook.

The club, almost back to pre-war shape and in some places even better, was rehabilitated through the expenditure of a large sum of money donated by members of the club and other interested persons of Grayling during this past summer.

In the past few weeks, two greens' sprinklers have been destroyed, while two hoses have been shot in two and vandals have deliberately walked about on the freshly seeded greens. These incidents brought a warning from the club that any such action would be met with full and complete prosecution under the law.

Also in a paid advertisement, the club offered a $50 reward for information leading to a conviction of any person damaging or molesting property either on the course or in the club house.

"A great deal of work, time and money has gone into the club this past summer and during this fall, we do not intend to stand idly by while some person or persons without any sense of decency damages and destroys our property," said Club President Cook.

"Some of these fellows might walk right into a big surprise one of these nights when they are out on the prowl to destroy other people's property," he added.

O. E. S. Installs Officers At Candle Light Service

Wednesday evening the newly elected and appointed officers of Grayling Chapter were installed. Sixty-five members and friends witnessed the ceremony.

The officers marched in from the preparation room and were seated to form a semi-circle back of the altar.

Mrs. Nellie McNeven in her very pleasing manner acted as installing worthy matron and was assisted by Mrs. Mae Erkes, chaplain and Mrs. Elsie Larson, marshal. The following officers were duly installed: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Laura McLeod; Worthy Patron, Philip Moran; Associate Matron, Mrs. Grace Andrews; Associate Patron, Luther Herrick; secretary, Miss Mabel Brasie; treasurer, Mrs. Mabel Martin; conductress, Mrs. Nellie Sales; associate conductress, Mrs. Margaret McGee; chaplain, Mrs. Marie Straehly; marshal, Mrs. Elsie Larson; organist, Mrs. June Gross; Adah, Mrs. Hazel Olson; Ruth, Mrs. Bernice Smith; Esther, Mrs. Francis Hanson; Martha, Mrs. Dorothy Brown; Electa, Mrs. Dorothy McClain; warder, Mrs. Lillian Houghton; sentinel, Mrs. Mary Herrick.

After the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Laura McLeod had taken her oath of office and while standing at the altar, Mrs. June Gross very sweetly sang "Have Thine Own Way Lord," she was then escorted through an aisle formed by eight ladies each carrying lighted tapers, to her station in the East. This was followed by "The Light Within," a candle lighting service.

Legion Plans Christmas Party

Grayling Post 108 of the American Legion is again laying plans for another kiddie's Christmas Party as last year at the Legion Hall.

Although it is too early to set a date or report many of the details of the Legion's Yuletide festive party for the little ones of the county, it has been announced by the committee in charge that this year 3 and 4 year old children will be entertained, providing they are accompanied by a parent or an older and responsible child, in addition to all of the kiddies of the county from Kindergarten through and including the fifth grade.

More information as to the dates set and more details of the party will be released for publication in the very near future.

Seven Ask For Manager Blanks

Seven men have either written or asked for application blanks for the post of City Manager of Grayling. Some of the blanks have already been returned and the remainder are expected to arrive before the November meeting of the City Council which is scheduled for next Monday evening.

Five of the applicants are Michigan men while the other two are both out-of-state residents. So far two requests have been received from Lansing, one from Hazel Park, Roscommon and Midland. The two out of town men are from Indianapolis, Indiana and Norwood, Massachusetts.

The two Lansing applicants are Palmer H. Slack, now assistant director of Public Service for the City of Lansing and a registered engineer and Harold H. Beltz, assistant superintendent in charge of operation and maintenance of the sewage treatment plant of the City of Lansing. The Hazel Park applicant is W. R. McCary, 43, director of Public Works and City Engineer of that city. He also is a registered engineer and was City Manager at Lapeer for one year. He is married and the father of two children.

The Roscommon man is Max Davenport now with the Lands Division of the Conservation Department. He is fairly well known in Grayling and the son of John Davenport who was the contractor that erected the Grayling sewage disposal plant. Ben L. Borden now City Planning and Safety Engineer of the City of Midland is the applicant of that city. John C. Barker, 42, now General Manager of the City of Norwood, Massachusetts is one of the applicants from out of state. He has held that position for seven and one-half years. Norwood is a city of 16,500 population. He is married and the father of one child. Dennis O'Harrow of Indianapolis is the other out of state applicant.

Marks 25 Years With A. & P.

Twenty-five years with one company is a long, long time—and Earl Dawson, manager of the Grayling super market of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company began his twenty-sixth year with the firm last Monday morning when the door was opened for business.

Not only has he a mark of 25 straight years with the company, but today marks twenty-five years as a store manager for A. & P. Because you see on October 27, 1922, Mr. Dawson was hired as a clerk in the Charlevoix store of the company and three days later on October 30 took over the Traverse City store as manager.

He has continued in that capacity ever since. He remained as manager in Traverse City for 17 months and then was moved to Grayling to take charge of the firm's store here and has been on the job every day since.

The A. & P. company seems to be almost a tradition for the family as well, for his son, Norman, who graduated from school here, is now store manager for A. & P. in Mount Pleasant. Another son, Devere, who is now manager of the Dawson store here, was employed for a time by A. & P. in Grand Rapids, Petoskey and Grayling while the youngest son, Richard, has spent some time with his father at the local store.

Yes, twenty-five years is a long, long time, but when Mr. Dawson opened a congratulatory letter from the company headquarters at Grand Rapids, he found that long and faithful service has its reward—a nice check was enclosed along with the letter.

Winter Inquiry List Very High

Over 1,000 people have inquired about various phases of winter sports that are to be offered this year at Grayling.

The one thousand people represented in the inquiries are interested in when the carnival will be, what accommodations are available, where they can eat, its ski instruction available, can they bring their own queen to Grayling for coronation ceremonies, can they have a special week end there for their city or community, will there be figure skating exhibitions and a thousand and one other questions.

These questions have all been answered to the best of the ability of John H. Peterson of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce who has been handling the inquiries. He said the inquiries came both from individuals and from both large and small organizations and groups.

"It is apparent that Grayling is still considered Michigan's Winter Sports Capital from the huge amount of correspondence that we receive. And one and all of our citizens must get in on the program this year to make it as big a success as it used to be," Peterson said.

Kiwanis Club Notes

Ralph Morse, owner and operator of the Skyline Ski Club located just south of Grayling was the speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club held at the Michelson Memorial Church Monday evening.

Mr. Morse told the club of the plans for expansion at the ski club and what had already been accomplished along that line. He said that there would be five ski tows operated this year instead of two as last season. Many new slopes have been added to the ski club by extensive clearing operations this past summer, he said.

He invited the club, and their families to come out to the Skyline at 2:30 this coming Sunday afternoon. A conducted tour of the area aboard a big Army vehicle will enable the club members and their families to see the new slopes and added tow lines.

John Peterson, Willard Cornell and William Joseph were appointed to serve as a nominating committee for the 1948 officers of the club which will include two vice-presidents instead of one as has been the case heretofore.

RECENT BRIDE GIVEN A SHOWER

Last Thursday evening after the regular meeting of Grayling Rebekah Lodge, Mrs. Dorothy Sorenson was presented with many nice gifts in a miscellaneous shower given in her home.

The long table was decorated with lighted tapers and a large cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The effect was very pretty after the lights were turned off.

It's Joe But Not That One

When a mistake is made, usually it is hoped that it will be a small one, but the Avalanche's face is burning a rosy hue and has been ever since the issue came out last week and a two column black face head announced to the world (and Grayling in particular) that Joseph Lennert was named as the Grayling Sportsmen's Club President.

Well, it was Joe—but not that Joe. A thousand pardons to Joe Bielski, who really is the president of the Grayling Sportsmen's Club.

We hope. Both men were nominated and refused the office. At that point a member took the floor and announced, "Joe has changed his mind. He will accept." The weary reporter who had already covered one meeting that evening and rushed to the Legion Hall to cover the Sportsmen's annual election of officers was just settled down to catch a wink or two, or three, or maybe four. Anyhow he sure missed the boat.

The remainder of the officers elected—and a report of the business carried out that evening, we guess, were correct—anyway we haven't had any complaints on that score yet.

Let's see 24 hours per day multiplied by seven days a week is well kinda' quieted down—might catch another tep—if the phone doesn't ring.

BRIDE-TO-BE FETED AT SHOWER

Miss Ann Bidvia was the honored guest at a miscellaneous shower given for her Friday evening at the Ernest Larson home at Camp Grayling by Mrs. Larson, Mrs. Don Kangas and Mrs. Matt Bidvia.

Twenty ladies were present. Miss Bidvia received many lovely gifts. Prizes won in the games played were also presented to her.

Miss Bidvia was also feted at a personal shower given by Miss Betty Kappan of Detroit and a miscellaneous shower hosted by Mrs. Louis Koyak, also of that city.

Average Tax Is $67.50

Although the average of Michigan's 3.5 million potential taxpayers paid $67.50 in real and personal property taxes during 1946, 2.5 million or 77 per cent of these paid an average of $79.27 per taxpayer, according to the Michigan Survey, state taxpayer organization.

Henry Steffens, Survey director, explained that only 21 counties made property tax levies in excess of $1 million during the year, but these few accounted for 90 per cent of the total Michigan levy made against only 37 per cent of the total equalized valuation. Therefore, Steffens said, residents of these counties pay higher taxes than their brethren in the 62 remaining counties.

Crawford County is not included in the 21 county group in the Survey tabulation.

Incidentally, Steffens said, the remaining 62 counties levied only 10 per cent of the total tax levy against 13 per cent of the total equalized valuation. Containing 23 per cent of the total taxpayers, this group raised taxes at a rate equivalent to only $28.28 per taxpayer.

Breaking these figures down, the Survey found that the average taxpayer (the man paying $67.50 in property taxes) paid $29.87 in city taxes, $23.87 for schools, $11.31 for county government, $1.43 to his village and $1.02 for townships.

All in all, Michigan's 6,800 plus units of local government levied a total of $232,221,040 in real and personal property taxes during 1946.

Crawford County had an equalized valuation of $3,714,773 and the taxes levied totaled $80,974. Making up this total were $26,925 in county taxes, $2,405 in township taxes, $17,760 in city taxes and $33,884 in school taxes.

V. F. W. Tells Hall Program

A week ago Wednesday evening, the V. F. W. held their first "Juke Box Nite" for the younger set. The dancing was supposed to start at 8:00 but of course it was 8:30 before the crowd really started to come. However at 9:30 there was a fairly large crowd and all of them seemed to be having a good time. Due to a little misunderstanding most of the crowd seemed to expect everything free but the V. F. W. organization in this city is very young and of course very nearly broke most of the time. It is our endeavor to give the younger set a place to dance and have a few refreshments at the least possible cost to themselves and of course to aid us in paying the rent on our building. In the future there will probably be a slight admission charge of ten or fifteen cents. There were a few things lacking at the first dance which the crowd were quick to notice but if they will just let us know what they would like we will know what they would like we will.

Last Week's Victory Over East Jordan Predicts Battle

Grayling's Forward Wall To Answer Big Question

Tomorrow afternoon, a battle for second position in the Northern "C" Conference will take place at the City Park Field when the Green and White of Grayling meets the Harbor Springs eleven.

Although Harbor held the powerful Charlevoix eleven to but a 12 to 6 victory over them last week, Grayling is conceded a better than even chance of stopping the gridiron squad of the northern city school. Harbor Springs lost to Pellston 12 to 7 earlier in the season while the Green Wave relentlessly smashed Pellston 27 to 0. Harbor downed East Jordan 21 to 0 while Grayling trampled the Jordanites last week by a 27 to 0 score. Grayling, likewise, scored on the powerful Rayder squad of Charlevoix although they did lose the game by a greater margin. The scales will be tipped in victory or defeat tomorrow for Grayling by a forward wall of the Wave who at times this year have played stupendous football and at others have been just another high school line.

The play of the Grayling line against East Jordan was much improved but not consistent. Especially on offense, the line at times opened wide holes through which the Grayling ball carriers advanced well in to the East Jordan secondary while at other times, the East Jordan line sprang through to smash the Grayling backs for losses. If victory and a secure hold on second place is to be assured tomorrow, the Wave forward wall will have to play consistently good ball for the full four quarters. Coach Willard Cornell is working on different offensive and defensive units in an effort to bolster Grayling's line play.

Grayling got rolling early at East Jordan last week, when East Jordan won the toss elected to receive and were forced to punt when they were unable to make yardage. On the first play, Jerry Smack scrambled 35 yards to the East Jordan 18, where Chuck Feldhauser flipped a pass to Cliff Papendick for the score. Smack smashed off tackle for the extra point.

In the first minutes of the second quarter, Smack again slashed off tackle for 8 yards and the second score, the point after attempt failed. Later in the same period, Smack rambled 12 yards to score and a place kick by Dick Bielski was good to make the score 20 to 0.

In the third canto, Grayling received the kickoff and returned it to their 40 yard line where a 58 yard march was started. The drive reached to the Jordanites 2 before the Wave received a clipping penalty that set them back so far that they lost the ball on downs. In the series of plays was a 28 yard open field dash by Smack. Again in the final period Grayling penetrated deep into the East Jordan territory only to be set back by another clipping charge. A final sustained drive, however, found Bob Rasmussen driving over from the six yard line to score with a pass from Smock to Chuck Feldhauser good for the final count of 27 to 0. The statistics showed that Grayling rang up 14 first downs to the Jordanites 3.

The play of the Grayling backfield has stamped them as a fine working unit and a group to be feared by their opponents. Smock, in each game, has shown remarkable running ability that marks him as amongst the best in the conference. Chuck Feldhauser's field generalship, his blocking, passing, pass receiving and backing up of the line has been accomplished in fine style while Bob Rasmussen at full back is coming along nicely with some nice running as shown in the Mancelona and East Jordan games. Jack Richardson on each instance in kicking off for Grayling has gotten off a long, high kick and his speed and weight could be extremely helpful in the Wave backfield.

Among those who saw service against East Jordan were: Ends, C. Papendick, Miller, Bielski, J. Feldhauser; tackles; Krage, Allison, J. Feldhauser, Richardson and Bielski; guards, Lozon, V. Papendick, E. Rasmussen and McEvers; center, Burns, Worden and Peterson; backs, C. Feldhauser, Smock, R. Rasmussen, Parkinson, Trudeau and E. Rasmussen.

Besides the Grayling and Charlevoix victories last week end, Mancelona topped Boyne City by a 14 to 0 count, while Pellston thumped Gaylord 26 to 7.

The conference standings now are:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Charlevoix	6	0	1.000
Grayling	4	1	.800
Harbor Springs	4	2	.666
Pellston	4	2	.666
Mancelona	4	2	.333
Boyne City	1	4	.200
East Jordan	1	5	.166
Gaylord	1	5	.166

Municipal Garage Moves Toward Completion

The new municipal garage being erected on Charles Street on the South Side next to the City Light Plant moved nearer completion this week at the heavy structural steel beams were moved into place.

Besides a heavy main beam running the length of the building, eight other steel beams were placed into position lying in from the main center beam to the outside walls of concrete blocks. Each beam weighing over a ton and were hoisted into position by a heavy duty crane owned and operated by Jack Millikin. Melvin Marshall is the contractor on the construction of the garage.

The heavy steel beams were necessitated by the huge expanse of flat roof which must be supported along with any heavy snow fall. Also the beams will be utilized from inside to carry chain hoists which will be movable to most any place in the building and will be capable of lifting two tons. The hoists will make repairs on city equipment much easier to accomplish.

Children's Pictures To Be Featured In Avalanche

November 13 is the big day for picture-taking of your youngsters. The Avalanche is having pictures taken of all children who brought by their parents or guardian to the Masonic temple between 1 P. M. and 8 P. M., absolutely free of charge.

The nationally known children's photographers, will be in charge. The Avalanche wants a picture of each child to print in its forthcoming feature "Citizens of Tomorrow," a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the co-operation of fathers and mothers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch the present stage for the pleasure you will get out of it in many years and for the thrill of seeing it in print. You will want to clip and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is no charge or obligation in taking the pictures. Parents do not have to be a subscriber or a reader of the Avalanche. You do not have to purchase pictures either, though you may obtain additional prints by arrangement with the studio if you want.

That is entirely up to you! Youngsters, accompanied by a parent or other guardian, are welcome. There is no age limit. Don't forget the place, the day and time.

MISSIONARY TO PEAK HERE

This evening Missionary Christian Tromborg of the Santal Mission in India, will speak at the Grayling Evangelical Lutheran Church. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Coffee will be served following the talk.

Offer Prize For Picture Of Oxen

Do you have a yoke of oxen in your yard?

If you have, take a picture of them and hurry it to the Michigan Tuberculosis Association in Lansing. There will be a prize for the best photo sent in before December 1. The announcement of the prize will be later released.

There is a reason for this search. On this year's Christmas Seal there is a design of a yoke of oxen hauling a load of Christmas trees. The symbol of the oxen is meant to indicate teamwork that so many thousands of people exhibit in their purchase of Christmas Seals to fight tuberculosis. That disease kills more people between the ages of 15-45 than any other disease.

The sale of Christmas Seals provides for a state-wide and local tuberculosis projects. Of the money raised in Michigan, 95% will be used within the state for local and state-wide tuberculosis control projects, and the other 5% will be forwarded to the National Tuberculosis Association to support research and other services on a national scale.

Christmas Seals were first sold in this country in 1907, when tuberculosis was the leading cause of death. In that year Miss Emily Bissell of Wilmington, Del., adopting an idea originated by a postal clerk in Denmark, promoted a Seal Sale to help a group of doctors continue their treatment of a small group of patients. The sale was so successful that it attracted national attention. The following year the sale was nation-wide and it has been nation-wide ever since.

students from other high schools throughout the United States and territories for the 119 Pepsi-Cola Four-Year College Scholarships and more than 550 fifty-dollar College Entrance Awards being offered again this year by the Pepsi-Cola Scholarship Board.

The contestants chosen were: Orlo Galvani, Lucille Wakeley and Robert Bishaw.

According to W. E. Kumpula, principal of Grayling High, it is both a scholastic and a personal honor to be selected as a contestant for one of these scholarships, since a student so elected must be one who is in the opinion of his classmates "most likely to make an important contribution to human progress." The election, which was held at a senior class meeting recently, was in itself an exercise in practical American democracy, W. E. Kumpula said.

If one of the students from Grayling wins a Pepsi-Cola Scholarship, he or she will have full tuition and certain incidental fees paid for four years at any accredited academic college he wishes to attend in the United States, its territories, or Canada. In addition, he will receive an allowance of $25 a month during the four academic years plus traveling expenses at the rate of three cents a mile for one round trip between home and college each school year.

shall try to do it. At the next dance you shall have different lighting if I have to buy the colored bulbs myself. Oh, yes, Richard Miller was the lucky one to win the Silver Dollar.

It is the intention of the V. F. W. to also have a night for the younger set so that they can come down to our place and play games, listen to the juke box, and have a little refreshments, too. It all takes time but if the citizens of Grayling will just be patient with us and support our program we shall do our very best to serve the community to the advantage of everyone.

Every Thursday night there will be a card party at the hall and although we have planned it as a Pinochle party we won't interfere with any other type of card game that is being played by the players providing it doesn't involve the exchange of hard cash so that we could be involved in a gambling scandal. We are strictly on the level and want everyone to treat us the same way. Last Thursday was the first Pinochle party and it wasn't much of a success due to the fact that so few of the people knew about it. We are hoping that next Thursday we will have a good turnout so that some lucky person can have the door prize.

Every Friday and Saturday night there will be a feather party at our hall, which is opposite Ray's Boat Livery, on Ingham St. We intend to keep one night a week as an open date so that people who want to rent a hall for a night may do so and have their own private party.

Yours for a Good Community,
The V. F. W.

The Press—Here And In Russia

The enormous difference between the Russian and the American ideas of government is perfectly illustrated by the recent denunciations of our press by high Soviet officials, and their demand that restrictive measures be taken to stop "unfair" criticism of Russia.

The Soviet spokesmen seem to be all in favor of a "free press"—so long as its comment agrees with their curious ideas of right and wrong. In Russia, the press is "free" to print government-inspired editorials and official handouts from the Politburo, the Foreign Office and the Kremlin. If the slightest deviation from the party line is found in a Russian newspaper, the usual practice is to send the editor in charge on a long voyage from which there is no returning.

The Russians may be perfectly sincere when they say they cannot understand American newspapers. This is one of the very few nations left on the face of the earth where any editor, so long as he stays within the laws covering libel and other crimes, can say what he pleases. The Russians seem to think that the growing criticism of Soviet actions in our press is the result of orders from the government. Nothing, as every American knows, could be further from the truth. It is, to the contrary, the simple consequence of the fact that the majority of editors believe that the principles underlying U. S. foreign policy are correct and inevitable.

The free press is the basis of all other freedoms. Destruction of the right to criticize, to speak one's mind, must be followed by the destruction of free government, free enterprise, freedom of religion. The Soviet press is used as a weapon to turn the Russian people into mental robots—and to make every man and woman slavishly think alike and repeat the same phrases. The Russians don't realize it, but their recent violent denunciations of the American press are a fine tribute to it—and to the system of government which makes it existence possible.

the Lord called me to attend Bible school. He led me to come to Prairie Bible Institute.

On Tuesday morning we left Grayling for Kalamazoo, September 30, 1947. On Wednesday morning I left Kalamazoo bound for Three Hills, Alberta and six months of study for the Lord. This trip was some thing new to me as I had never ridden on a train before.

The folks in Kalamazoo said they would pray for me as I made my train connections. It is a good thing they did because I almost missed the train. It seemed that the train was just waiting for me. I arrived in Chicago at 8:30. This is where the Lord answered prayers. I left Chicago at 9:00 A. M., headed for Minneapolis. The train was a streamliner one. On this stretch of the trip was some very beautiful country. We went along the Mississippi River for a long way. The river on one side and some kind of rock formation on the other side. It was straight up in most places. In a few places it was so high that I couldn't see the top of it from the train window. Other places looked like someone had neatly carved it out.

I arrived in Minneapolis about 2:34 A. M. Here I had a 6 hour layover. I left Minneapolis for Winnipeg at 8:45 P. M. This train was kind of old. The train pulled into Winnipeg around 9:45 the morning. While in Winnipeg I met a girl from New Mexico. She was going to P. B. I. We had no trouble with our baggage at customs.

We left Winnipeg about 10:15 A. M. By this time there were quite a few on the train that were going to the same place I was. We all went to one car and started singing gospel songs. We sang for about an hour and a half. We arrived in Edmonton at 8:40. We were there about 2 hours. I met many more students there. We left Edmonton at 8:30 A. M. and arrived at Three Hills, Alberta at 3:13 A. M. We had about two cars full of students. From all appearances it looked like the whole place turned out to meet us. I arrived safe and all in one piece. My trunks followed me and got here the following Wednesday.

The school here started out with 95 students in enrollment. The school was then in one building. This year the enrollment is between 12 and 13 hundred. There are 5 dorms for the girls and 4 for the boys. They have 2 laundries, a very large dining room with 94 tables. Many of the students live in private homes and most of the staff members live in private homes.

There is such a wonderful Christian spirit here. All the classes are opened with prayer.

They have strict rules here which are very wonderful and for the benefit of the students. There is a regulation on the length of the dress for the girls. Lights must be out at 9:30 for high school students and 10 o'clock for Bible school students.

We hear wonderful messages from the Word of God every morning. Everyone has a certain amount of gratis to do. My gratis is helping to peel potatoes. We

Council Proceedings

Oct. 6, 1947

Regular meeting.
Meeting called to order by Mayor Edwin Carlson.
Councilmen present: Carlson, Gothro, Burke, Hayes.
Absent: Tufts.
Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Moved by Hayes, supported by Burke that the city increase its offer to Elmer Rasmussen for alley right of way from $400 to $500.
Yea: Hayes, Burke, Gothro and Carlson.
Nay: None.

Moved by Burke, supported by Hayes, that the following resolution be adopted.

Whereas, at a special election held on the 22nd day of September, 1947, the qualified electors of the City of Grayling approved a proposition to acquire a municipal garage at an estimated cost of $8,000 and authorized an issue of general obligation bonds in said amount for said purpose, and

Whereas, after careful consideration, this Council did, at a special meeting thereof duly called and held on the 15th day of September, 1947, engage Melvin J. Marshall of Grayling to construct said garage, it being then decided that it would be impractical to advertise for bids for said construction and that it was for the best interests of said City to so engage said Melvin J. Marshall for said purpose, and

Whereas, it appears that labor and material costs have greatly increased since the original estimate of $8,000 for the construction of said garage was made, and

Whereas, after a detailed discussion of costs and plans relative to said garage, the said Melvin J. Marshall offered to construct the same according to plans and specifications approved by the City Manager, on a time and material basis as follows:

Labor Basis:
$2.00 per hour for Melvin J. Marshall.
$1.25 per hour for semi-skilled labor.
$1.75 per hour for block layers.
$2.00 per hour for mixer machine.

Material Basis:
Ten per cent of the cost of materials used in the construction of said garage to be paid to said Melvin J. Marshall.

Payment Basis:
1. Upon completion of foundation $600 to be paid to said Melvin J. Marshall.
2. Upon completion of garage up to the placing of steel for the roof, the sum of $6,000 to be so paid.

3. Upon full completion and approval of work by the City Manager, the entire balance to be paid.
And Whereas, said Melvin J. Marshall has agreed to do said work in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the orders of and subject to the approval of the City Manager.

And Whereas, said garage when completed will be used, among other things, for storage of materials and supplies to be used in connection with the Municipal Light and Power Plant, and because therefore a part of the cost of said garage should properly be charged to said Light and Power Plant and paid for out of Light and Power Plant funds.

Now, Therefore, It is hereby Resolved that the City of Grayling enter into a contract with said Melvin J. Marshall for the construction of said garage on the aforesaid terms and conditions and that the Mayor and Clerk be and they are authorized to execute such contract on behalf of the City.

And It is Further Resolved, that the cost of said garage in excess of $8,000 be paid by the City out of its general fund and electric plant funds in such proportion as this Council shall deem proper.

Yea: Burke, Hayes, Gothro and Carlson.
Nay: None.

Absent: Tufts.

Moved by Gothro, and supported by Carlson that pending the sale of the general improvements bonds authorized at the special election held on September 22, 1947, and the receipt of the proceeds thereof, the City borrow the sum of $18,000 from the Grayling State Savings Bank, said loan to be used to pay for materials and labor on the projects authorized and for which said bonds are to be issued, and that the City Manager and City Attorney be and they are hereby authorized to negotiate with said bank for said loan, and that the City issue its promissory note to said bank for said loan, and that the Mayor and Clerk be and they are hereby authorized to execute the same on behalf of said City.

Yea: Gothro, Carlson, Hayes and Burke.
Nay: None.

Absent: Tufts.

Bids received on car for Police Department.
One bid received from Welsh Motor Sales as follows:
Ford Deluxe Tudor Sedan equipped as per bid, $1,342.07.

Moved by Burke, supported by Hayes, that the bid of Welsh Motor Sales for one Ford Tudor Sedan equipped as per bid for $1,342.07 be accepted.
Yea: Burke, Hayes, Gothro and Carlson.
Nay: None.

Absent: Tufts.

LOCAL CHILDREN

60 Pictures of the children of this community are to be published in this newspaper as a special tribute to our Young Citizens of Tomorrow. Soon the responsibility for world destiny will rest heavily upon their shoulders. As Americans, they will meet those responsibilities without flinching. Among them, in the years to come will be many with fame and fortune. But, just as they are right now... with the dawn of a greater tomorrow in their eyes... this newspaper wants a picture of these fresh young faces... this newspaper wants a picture of these future professional men and women, and, who knows, perhaps a future president of our country. These pictures will be published in a forthcoming special feature. So, Mother and Dad, your cooperation will be needed to help make this event a colorful and inspiring exhibit!

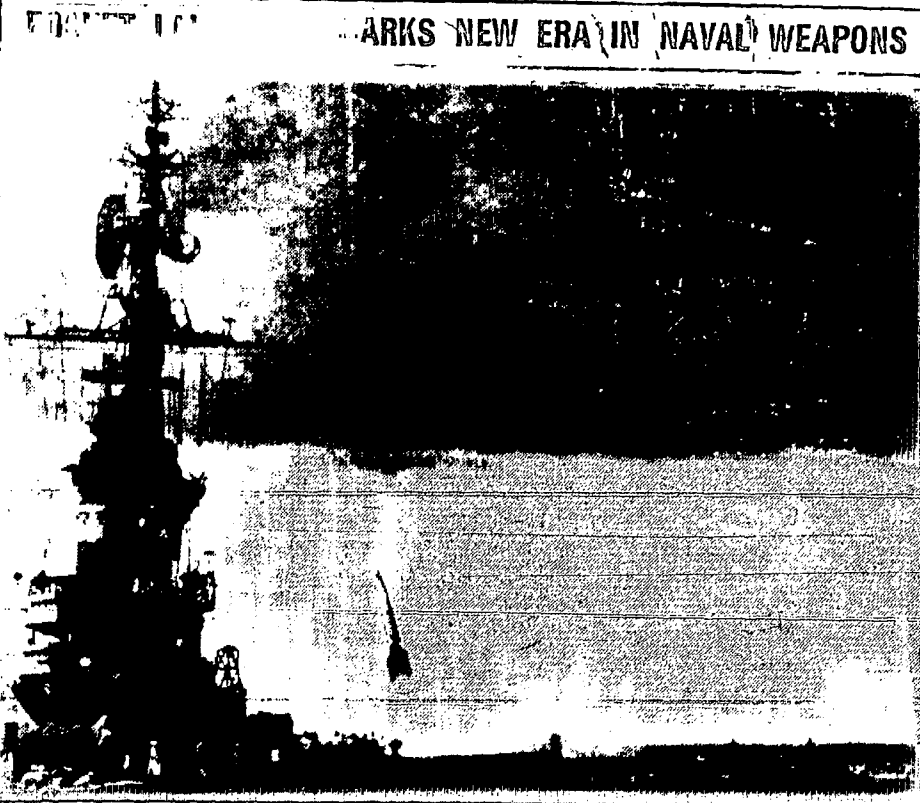

60 Arrangements have been made with The Volts Studios, nationally known children's photographers for newspapers, to take the pictures at the time and place given below. All you have to do is bring your children to the photographer. There is no charge or obligation. Children must be accompanied by one parent or other guardian.

60 You do not have to be a subscriber to this newspaper and you do not need to purchase photographs, although you may do so if you wish. Just bring your children down and have the pictures taken. Later you will be shown proofs from which you select the poses you prefer having printed in the paper. It is as simple as that!

60 You can clip these pictures from the paper, thus obtaining a memento of childhood which will become a treasured keepsake and memory record for both you and your children.

Below is the time and place to have your pictures taken without cost

MASONIC TEMPLE
Thursday, November 13 — 1 to 8 P.M.

Marking "the beginning of a new era in Naval weapons," the United States Navy fired a captured German V-2 rocket from the flight deck of the 45,000 ton aircraft carrier USS Midway on September 8, 1947. This was the first time in history such a bombardment rocket has been launched from ships or a moving platform. The primary purpose of the experiment, held at sea several hundred miles off the East Coast of the United States, was to ascertain if large bombardment rockets could be fired off modern aircraft carriers without modifications affecting flight operations. The rocket traveled six miles and exploded. (Official U. S. Navy Photograph)

U. S. Judge Frank A. Picard of Saginaw will be Michigan state chairman of the 1948 March of Dimes. It was announced by Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Paralysis.

The 1948 campaign will mark the tenth anniversary of the National Foundation, established by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to "lead, direct and unify" the fight against untimely paralysis. The March of Dimes each January is the National Foundation's sole support.

Judge Picard, a native of Iowa and a graduate of the University of Michigan in 1912, was admitted to the Michigan bar that year and in 1913 served as assistant prosecuting attorney of Saginaw County. He practiced law from 1913 to 1939, when he became U. S. judge for the Michigan Eastern district. He was vice-president of the Means Stamp Company, director of the Saginaw Lumber Company and in 1932-1934 was chairman of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, helping to formulate the Michigan plan of liquor control. In 1937-38 he was chairman of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission and was co-author of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Act.

In announcing Judge Picard's appointment, Mr. O'Connor disclosed that since 1943 infantile paralysis has taken a tragic toll, with more than 72,000 Americans having been stricken.

"Thousands," he warned, "continue to face a long fight for recovery. This summer, fortunately, we had a 'breathing spell' as polio incidence nationally did not approach the awful total of 1946.

Sam's a Matrimony Expert

Sam Abernathy never intended to be a matrimony expert, but he hit the nail on the head the other day when he said:

"What marriage really needs is more open minds and a lot fewer open mouths."

Sam may not think much of his missus' choice of hats or her habit of serving watercress and cream cheese salad. But he keeps his mouth shut (I mean, he just uses it to eat the salad). And the missus never criticizes Sam's affection for that worn-out chair before the fire, and his mellow glass of beer and pipe at the end of a long day.

From where I sit, that prescription would apply to most human relationships. Criticism rarely rouses anything but resentment. But an open mind—whether it's applied to a woman's choice of hats, or a husband's preference for a pipe and a moderate glass of beer or two—leads to the conclusion that there's right on both sides.

THE JESTER'S LAST CHANCE

By JOHN T. KIERAN

ONE more chance to play his old role! One more chance to put on the only thing left of the days when he was hailed as the World's Greatest Clown, as Arsel, the Children's Delight.

In a flash Arsel thought of what was in his trunk, for from his shabby tenement room he could hear the little fellow downstairs bawling his fate. The circus parade! And it was passing a block down, just far enough away that he could not see it, but near enough that he could hear the thrilling rumble of wagon wheels and the delighted shouts of the other children. But to share in the feast of joy was denied the little fellow. A few days before an errant truck had crushed his leg, and there he lay, imprisoned in a heavy cast.

To Arsel the rumble of wheels brought back memories. Again the smell of sawdust was in his nostrils. The stirring music of the circus rang in his ears. He saw the big tent, the prancing horses, the thousands of people laughing at his antics, shouting his name—Arsel, the world's greatest fun maker, beloved by millions—now Arsel the forgotten, the unknown, in poverty and ill health. He sat up now in his bed uncertainly, wobbly.

But only for a moment did he hear the shouts and applause of other days, for they were crowded out by the crying of the boy downstairs. He was inconsolable. The circus was passing him by.

Arsel was trying to carry his thought into action. One more chance to be his old self! One more chance to wear the old thing that remained of his days of glory—his clown suit. And for what a cause!

The shabby room became a dressing tent. Out there was the audience he was going to amuse, to make happy—even more this time—to cheer a little boy into a frame of mind that would beckon recovery and lessen the misery of imprisoned limbs.

But could he manage to go through with it? Could he find the strength? The community nurse, having found him when she came to visit the injured boy, had told him that he must not leave his bed.

But another outburst of childish grief decided him. Hesitatingly, tottering he left the bed and started for the battered trunk in which lay the old clown suit.

WHEN the circus had come into the town a half dozen of the old-timers were still with it. They had been troopers long ago with Arsel before he faded into oblivion.

They had last heard of him in this town. He probably was still here. They determined to find out, and to give him a rousing salutation, a regular circusman's greeting.

Arsel had the old suit on now. He wondered again what made him feel so fit. But then as he looked at the mirror he forgot everything.

He was Arsel, the Children's Delight.

Suddenly he almost collapsed. The flare of strength that had buoyed him up puffed out.

Suddenly a sound re-aroused his flagged mind. Incredulously he listened. Was it just a part of this strangeness that had come over him? Or was it really a circus band? Just outside! They were playing his march. The Circusmen's March!

He relaxed, happily. The boy was getting his circus after all. Shouts of joy were coming from him. For the little fellow was looking out the window, almost crying again he was so excited and thrilled.

"I wanna dance," he exclaimed, looking down at his cast. He saw one of the bandmen come into the house. In a minute or two he came out again and the band stopped playing. He said something to the others and then they started playing again.

The boy looked puzzled. He listened attentively for a moment. Then:

"That first piece was so pretty. I made you wanna dance or somethin'. But this one is so different. Gosh it sounds like somebody was dead!"
